

Some 'Getting it Write' Articles in Ancestor Vol:no. Year

Getting started. 28:1 2006

Citations, bibliographies and notes. Part I 28:2 2006

Citations, bibliographies and notes. Part II 28:3 2006

Writing the first paragraph. 28:4 2006

Learning from books you read. 28:5 2007

Publishing images in your family history. 28:6 2007

Believable and readable – citations, references and notes. 28:7 2007

Marketing your book. 28:8 2007

Writing with style. 29:1 2008

Who's Telling this Story? – The Author's Cloak. 29:3 2008

As the author your credibility is at stake – so how good are the source of your information. 29:4 2008

Choosing a theme or topic. 29:5 2009

Bridging the Gap – coping with a gap in the story. 29:6 2009

Bringing your family history to life. 29:7 2009

Self-publishing on your own computer. 29:8 2009

Telling stories from our personal archives. 30:1 2010

Show don't tell in writing family history. 30:2 2010

Publishing short articles on your family and social history. 30:3 2010

Placing a value on our family history. 30:5 2011

Why do we write family history? When and how do we start? 30:6 2011

The writer at work. 30:7 2011

Mapping for family history. 30:8 2012

Websites for family history writers. 31:1 2012

A family history - getting it into print. 31:2 2012

An introduction for e-books for family history writers. 31:3 2012

Document to text – interpretation and expression. 31:4 2012

Emotion and imagination in writing family history. 31:5 2013

Writing about family objects. 31:6 2013

Aspects of structure in family histories. 31:7 3013

Memoir. 31:8 2013

Writing a brief finished piece. 32:1 2014

Writing an ending. 32:2 2014

Adding historical context. 32:3 2014

Publishing your family history. 32:4 2014

Selecting, obtaining and using images and making your own maps. 32:5 2015

Marketing, promotion and distribution. 32:6 2015

What is good family history writing. 32:7 2015

Shops in our Childhood. 32:8 Dec 2015

Writing about your ancestors' Houses. 33:1 Mar 2016

Writing about Photographs. 33:2 June 2016

Self Publishing a Book. 33:3 Sept 2016

Copyright - or not. 33:4 Dec 2016
